CHAPTER HOUSES
of
KAPPA ALPHA THETA

*“Here they give me greeting,
House me warm within,
Break their bread and share it
With the heart of kin.
Here the ruddy hearth-light
Gives a summer welcome.—”*

PEABODY

ALPHA—DEPAUW UNIVERSITY
904 South College avenue, Greencastle

Bought 1920, enlarged 1924
Cost $50,000

For 32 girls and chaperon
Annual rent $2,500

BETA—UNIVERSITY OF INDIANA

Forest place, Bloomington

Built (around old house) 1923
Cost $55,000

For 40 girls and chaperon
Annual rent $4,500

The slope of the land at back gives this house one story and basement not shown in picture, where are located charming dining and study rooms.

GAMMA—BUTLER COLLEGE
Butler College Campus, Indianapolis

Building 1928
Cost $63,600

For 26 girls and chaperon
Annual rent to be determined later

Picture from Architect's sketch

DELTA—UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS

611 East Daniel street, Champaign

Built 1924

Cost $90,000

For 33 girls and chaperon

Annual rent $7,000

Delta built its first house in 1904, cleared it of all debt in 1923. As the University development had brought the campus directly across the street, a more distant lot was bought, the old house moved to it, lived in while this house was building on the old lot, and then sold to make a large payment on the new house.

ETA—UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN

1414 Washtenaw avenue, Ann Arbor

Bought 1916
Cost $36,000

For 26 girls and chaperon
Annual rent $2,400

IOTA—CORNELL UNIVERSITY
118 Triphammer road, Ithaca

Bought 1920
Cost $30,000

For 17 girls and chaperon
Annual rent $1,700

KAPPA—UNIVERSITY OF KANSAS
1116 Indiana street, Lawrence

Built 1912, enlarged 1924
Cost $28,000

For 30 girls and chaperon
Annual rent $1,350

LAMBDA—UNIVERSITY OF VERMONT

215 South Prospect street, Burlington

Bought 1922
Cost $15,000

For 13 girls and chaperon
Yearly rent $270

Chapter does not maintain a dining-room, as college requires all students eat at college dining-rooms and allows only seniors and juniors to live in chapter houses. The house is free of debt—the $5,000 mortgage having been burnt at the June, 1928, reunion through the generosity of an alumna, in appreciation of the chapter's fine scholarship and spirit.

MU—ALLEGHENY COLLEGE
Van Buren Point on Lake Erie, N.Y.

Built 1917
Cost $2,500

Sleeping capacity 30
Annual rent $300

Mu, being in a college where all must live in dormitory, can have no chapter house, so this summer cottage is used by both undergraduates and alumnae for vacations of from a week-end to several months—and can be the scene also of house parties when weather permits. It has kitchen, baths, living-room, porch, on first floor—on second, three bed rooms, and two sleeping porches, each of which can accommodate 12 cots.

OMICRON—UNIVERSITY OF SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA
653 West Twenty-eighth street, Los Angeles

Bought 1922, enlarged 1927
Cost $25,000

For 15 girls and chaperon
Annual rent $2,160

RHO—UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA

1545 "S" street, Lincoln

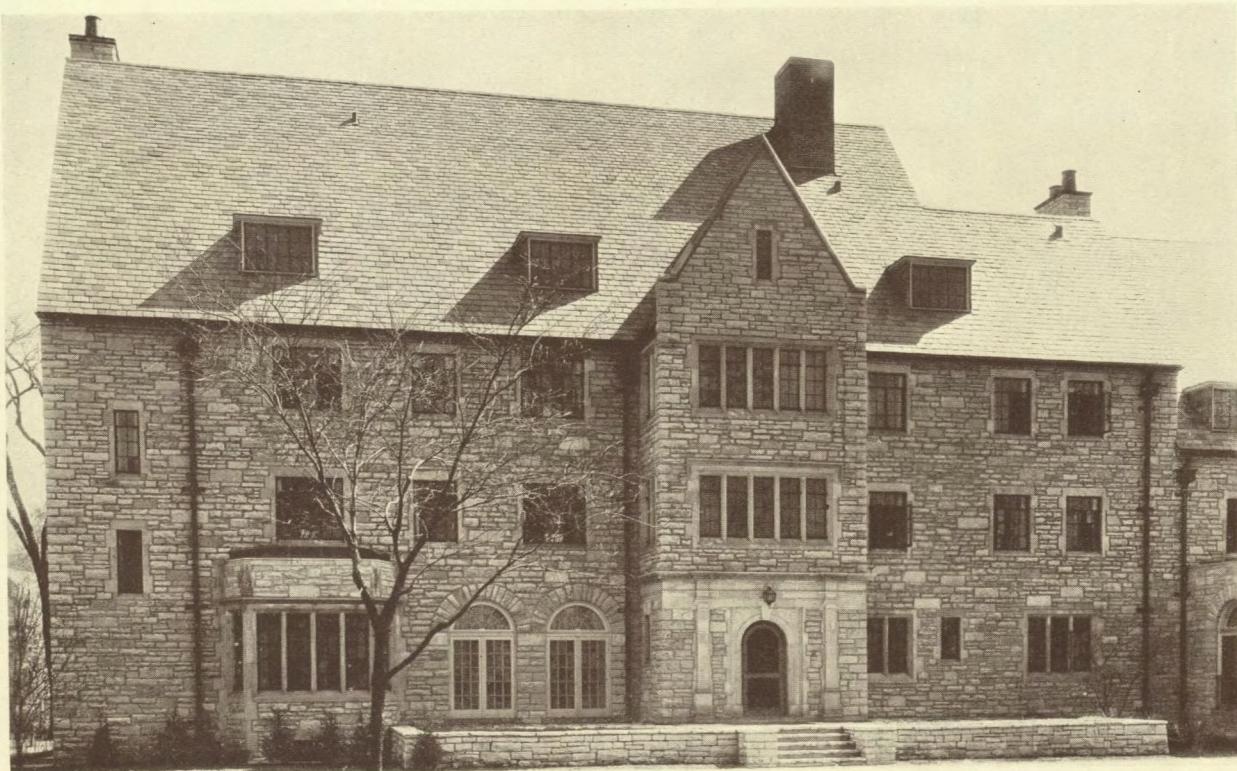

Built 1925

Cost $52,000

For 36 girls and chaperon

Annual rent $3,600

Notice the Kite shutters and the crest beautifully carved over the French doors to the terrace.

TAU—NORTHWESTERN UNIVERSITY
Woman's Quadrangle, Evanston

Built 1927
Cost $110,000

For 29 girls and chaperon
Annual rent $5,000

The cost of this house included $25,000 for furnishings, which are complete and artistic, even though the first consideration was good, comfortable beds, and ample study desks.

UPSILON—UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA
314 Tenth avenue S.E. Minneapolis

Bought 1911, enlarged 1915
Cost $40,000

For 14 girls and chaperon
Annual rent $1,800

PHI—STANFORD UNIVERSITY

15 Lasuen street, Stanford

Built 1900, enlarged 1913, 1927
Cost $18,000

For 25 girls and chaperon
Annual rent $1,800

This house is located on university campus, so pays only a nominal ground lease. It was entirely free of debt in 1923, all improvements since having been paid for from the sinking fund of rent.

CHI—SYRACUSE UNIVERSITY

306 Walnut Place, Syracuse

Building 1928

Investment to be $63,500

For 26 girls and chaperon

Annual rent (not yet set)

(Architect's elevation sketch)

PSI—UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN

237 Lake Lawn place, Madison

Built, 1925

Cost $74,800

For 32 girls and chaperon

Annual rent $7,500

One-half the cost of this house was met by sale of a former house, also built by Psi, which was free of debt at time of sale.

OMEGA—UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA

2723 Durant avenue, Berkeley

Built 1907, enlarged 1924
Cost $40,000

For 21 girls and chaperon
Annual rent $3,250

House was free of all debts in 1924, when remodeled and enlarged through a mortgage which rent will soon clear.

ALPHA BETA—SWARTHMORE COLLEGE
Swarthmore campus, Swarthmore

Built 1928
Cost $10,000

Lodge
Annual rent $150

As Swarthmore is a dormitory college, this lodge contains only living-rooms, kitchenette, and a guest suite.

ALPHA GAMMA—OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY

95 East Twelfth avenue, Columbus

Bought 1924, enlarged 1926
Cost $40,000

For 12 girls and chaperon
Annual rent $2,400

ALPHA ETA—VANDERBILT UNIVERSITY
Highland avenue, Nashville

Built 1912
Cost $4,000

Lodge
Annual rent—Nothing

This is a bungalow lodge used only for meetings and social functions. Has one guest room where visiting parents or alumnae may stay. Free of debt.

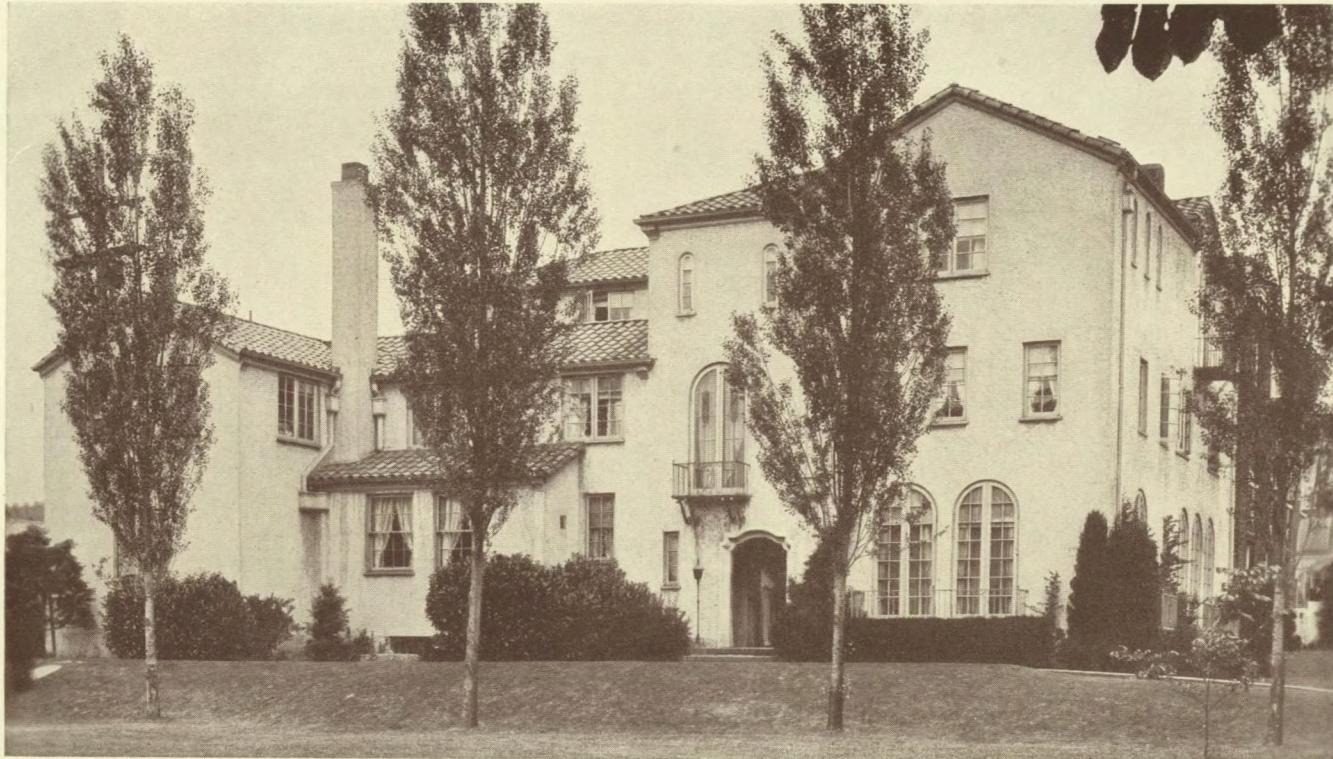

ALPHA THETA—UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS

2627 Wichita avenue, Austin

Built 1928
Cost $41,000

For 25 girls and chaperon
Annual rent $3,600

For some years Alpha Theta owned a lot free from all debt, but doubtfully located. Then the University of Texas growth brought the campus almost to the edge of this lot, so it became the ideal location for one of Theta's newest chapter houses.

ALPHA LAMBDA—UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON
4521 Seventeenth avenue N.E. Seattle

Built 1924
Cost $45,000

For 28 girls and chaperon
Annual rent $3,000

ALPHA MU—UNIVERSITY OF MISSOURI
705 Kentucky boulevard, Columbia

Built 1922
Cost $34,000

For 24 girls and chaperon
Annual rent $2,500

ALPHA NU—UNIVERSITY OF MONTANA

333 University avenue, Missoula

Bought 1920, remodeled 1927
Cost $15,000

For 22 girls and chaperon
Annual rent $2,040

ALPHA XI—UNIVERSITY OF OREGON
Fifteenth and Alder streets, Eugene

Built 1924
Cost $45,000

For 34 girls and chaperon
Annual rent $4,050

ALPHA OMICRON—UNIVERSITY OF OKLAHOMA

518 Boulevard, Norman

Built 1922
Cost $43,500

For 44 girls and chaperon
Annual rent $4,050

The cost of this house was materially reduced by the generosity of Theta fathers and husbands who supplied various building materials at cost.

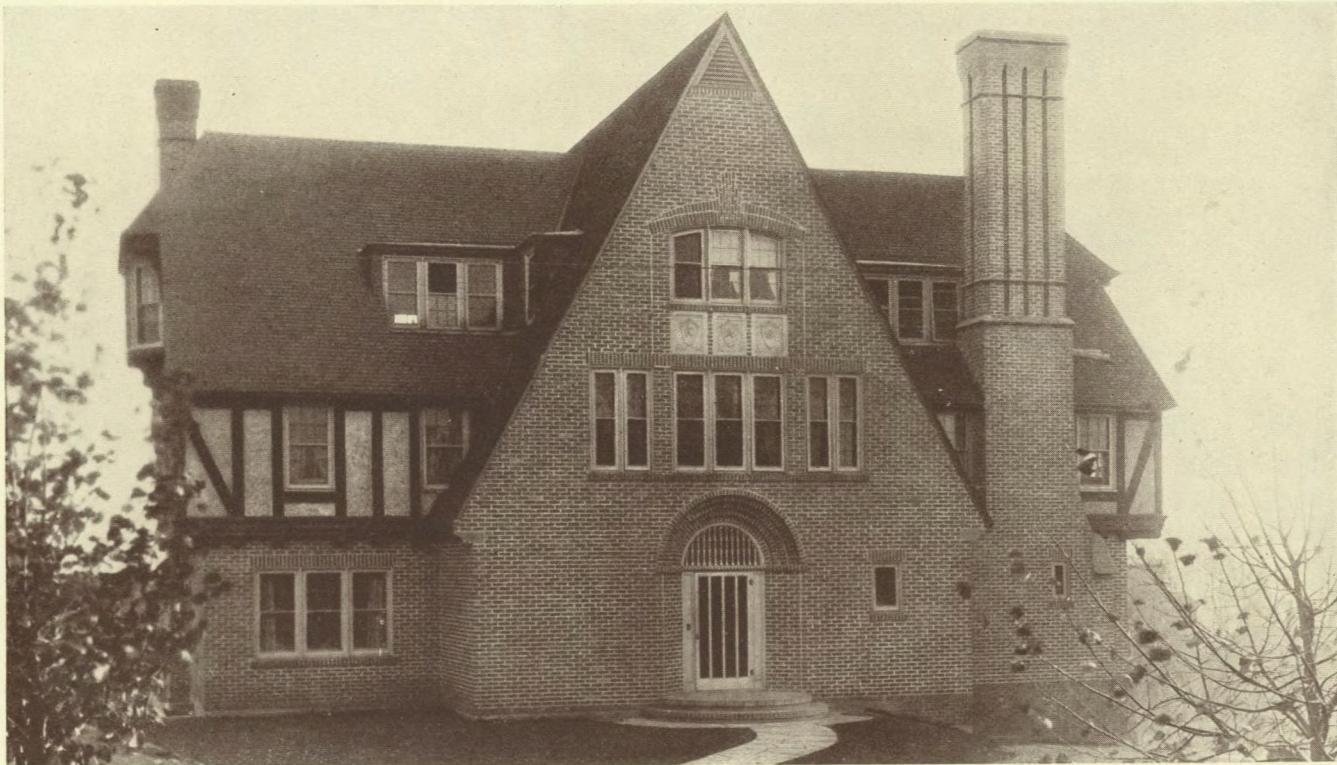

ALPHA PI—UNIVERSITY OF NORTH DAKOTA

2800 University avenue, Grand Forks

Built 1923
Cost $23,000

For 16 girls and chaperon
Annual rent $2,000

ALPHA SIGMA—WASHINGTON STATE COLLEGE
603 California street, Pullman

Built 1924
Cost $38,000

For 32 girls and chaperon
Annual rent $3,000

ALPHA UPSILON—WASHBURN COLLEGE
Washburn Campus, Topeka

Built 1923
Cost $25,000

For 17 girls and chaperon
Annual rent $900

Built on the university campus, this house's cost does not include any investment in land.

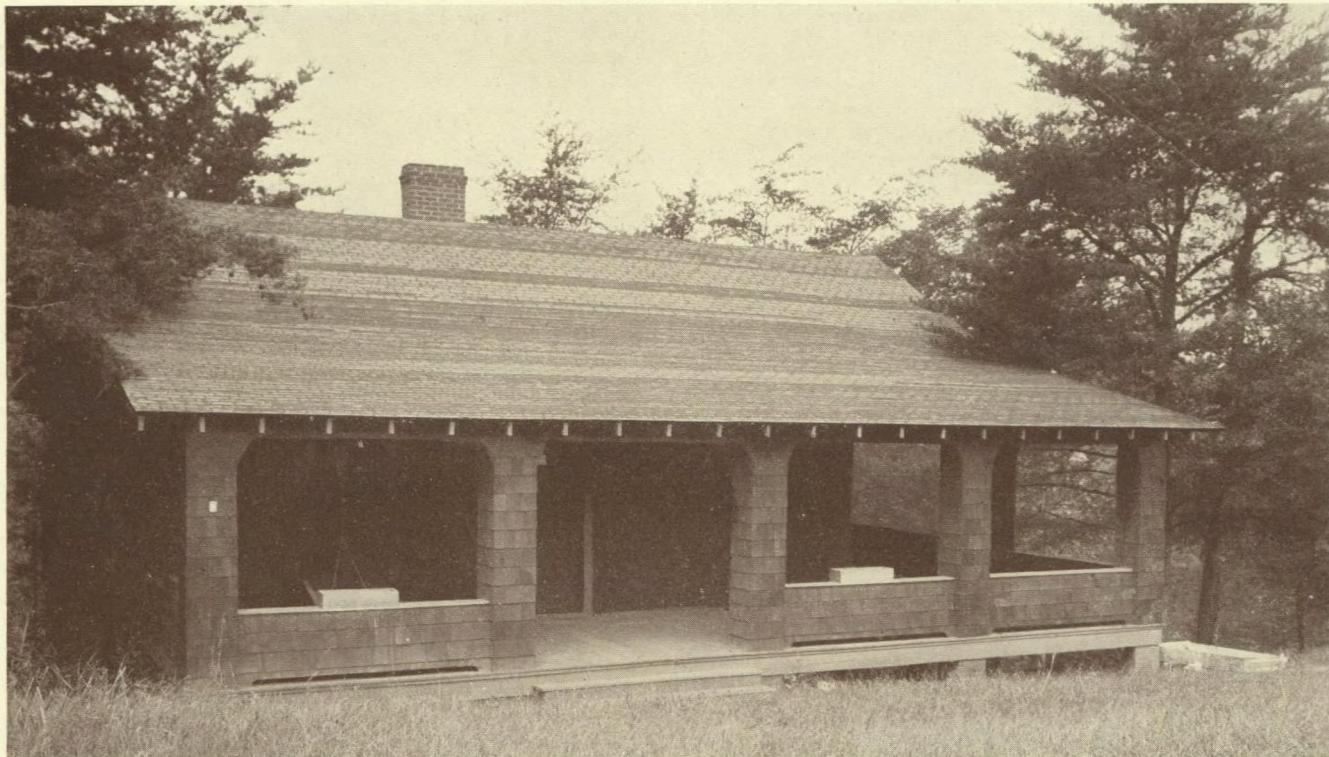

ALPHA CHI—PURDUE UNIVERSITY

172 Littleton street, West Lafayette

Bought 1920
Cost $25,000

For 21 girls and chaperon
Annual rent $1,800

BETA BETA—RANDOLPH-MACON WOMAN'S COLLEGE

The Pines, R.M.W.C. Campus, Lynchburg

Built 1917, enlarged 1928

Cost $1,700

Lodge

Annual rent—none

This lodge is used simply as a social center, though it has a fully equipped kitchen and dining-room where the cooks of the chapter often provide a fine meal when weary of dormitory food. The lodge is entirely free of debt now.

BETA GAMMA—COLORADO STATE COLLEGE

639 South College avenue, Fort Collins

Bought 1923, remodeled 1928
Cost $18,000

For 16 girls and chaperon
Annual rent $1,800

BETA DELTA—UNIVERSITY OF ARIZONA
1050 Mountain avenue, Tucson

Built 1928
Cost $40,000

For 32 girls and chaperon
Annual rent $4,500

BETA EPSILON—OREGON STATE COLLEGE

Twenty-first and Jackson streets, Corvallis

Built 1927
Cost $50,000

For 26 girls and chaperon
Annual rent $3,150

BETA ZETA—OKLAHOMA STATE COLLEGE

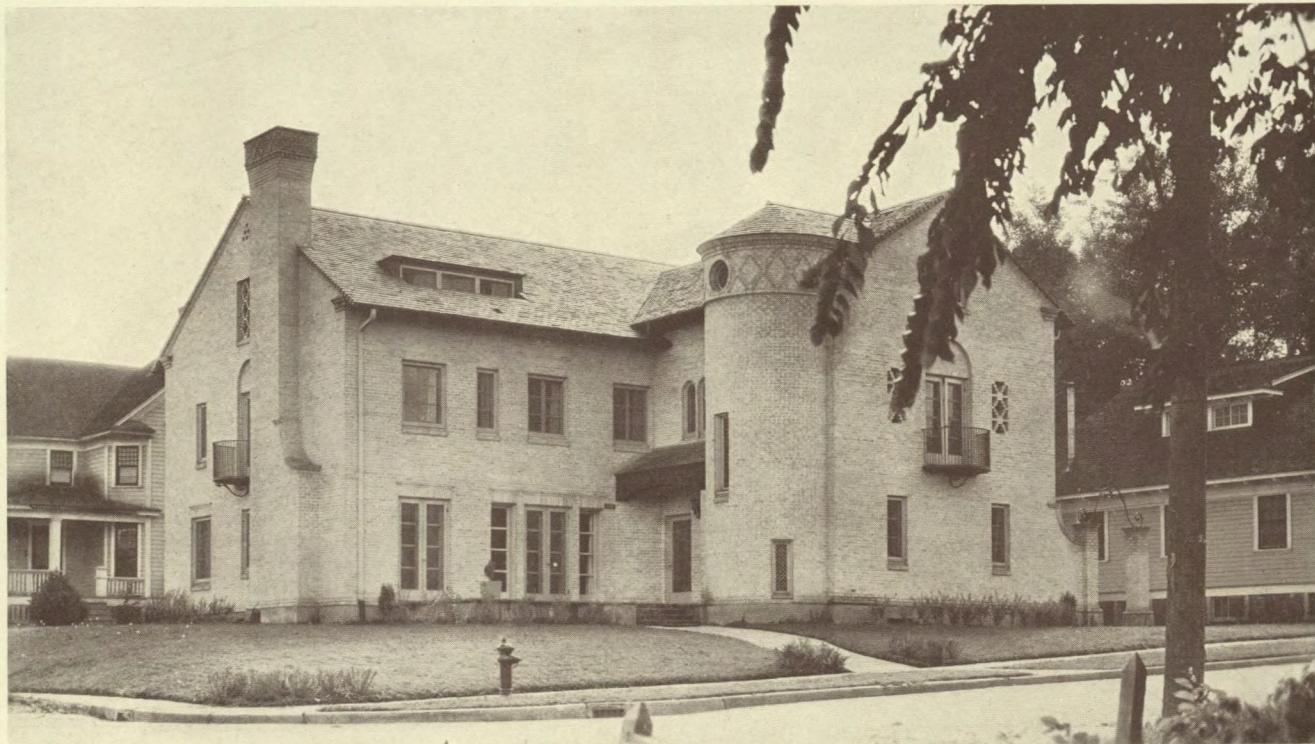

901 College avenue, Stillwater

Bought 1922, enlarged 1926

Cost $23,000

For 26 girls and chaperon

Annual rent $1,575

BETA THETA—UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO

503 University avenue, Moscow

Built 1926
Cost $45,500

For 32 girls and chaperon
Annual rent $5,600

When Beta Theta received its charter in 1920, it owned a house on this lot, which was moved to another lot and sold to cover first payment on new house. Furnishings were included in the architect's contract, so are most adequate and beautifully adapted to the house's style and the girls' comfort.

BETA IOTA—UNIVERSITY OF COLORADO
909 Fourteenth street, Boulder

Built 1928
Cost $45,000

For 32 girls and chaperons
Annual rent $2,500

BETA OMICRON—UNIVERSITY OF IOWA
831 E. Burlington street, Iowa City

Built 1928
Cost $45,000

For 30 girls and chaperon
Annual rent $3,600

Our Chapter Homes

AND some day, a chapter house. . . . Intangible, those early dreams. Vague excursions into the never-never land. Half-hearted planning. Then, with the hope of realization, work—hard work. “Sacrifice and service—giving, not receiving.” Another college generation puts aside caps and gowns, and helps to pay for a chapter home it may never see.

After many years the house is built. The latch is open. On the door, a crested knocker. Above the hearth, the coat-of-arms. And you who enter call it home, “something you somehow haven’t to deserve.” Home, from the day it was built—no, long before, for it is a house built upon a rock, a home founded upon a faith—faith in those who have gone before, faith in those who are to come.

Into those walls have gone the courage of youth undaunted. Around that hearth have circled the dreams of youth believing. And from those doors shall go understanding youth, repeating, “After me cometh a Builder. Tell him, I too, have known. . . .”

—K Δ Angelos

CHAPTER HOUSES

ONE and a half million dollars invested in women's fraternities houses; an average investment of $1,360 for each of the 6,885 girls they are built to accommodate.

These facts are from the Survey on cost of fraternity life and fraternity housing prepared, at the request of the nineteenth National Panhellenic Congress, by Miss Gachet, Alpha Omicron Pi, and presented to the twentieth congress, meeting in Boston last February. The survey was made through a questionnaire for which the women's fraternities cooperated by each assembling information about its own chapter houses.

It is Kappa Alpha Theta's happy privilege to present excerpts from this survey as the major part of this article.

The survey had two main purposes: the securing of information that might be valuable to fraternities in meeting criticisms of the fraternity system, and in planning building programs. "Along the lines covered by the survey problems of fraternities are not only similar but practically identical, so it was felt that each would find generally useful . . . data on how other fraternities had solved similar problems." The survey is divided into three sections: building costs, living expenses, operating costs.

It covers chapter houses in 124 colleges, and includes figures for from 297 to 432 chapter houses. While data about every chapter house on every campus was not at hand, there was data for a majority of houses on each campus, so it seems fair to consider the figures as representative. The chief exceptions to completeness are the absence of information regarding (1) Chi Omega, which did not cooperate in the survey; (2) Delta Gamma, which requested omission of figures as a misunderstanding led to incomplete returns; (3) Alpha Delta Theta, which owns no chapter houses as yet; (4) Northwestern university houses, which were not completed when the survey was made. Data for the survey ended with June, 1927, since which date a good many chapter houses have been built or purchased.

BUILDING COSTS

The purpose of this section "the determination of the investment of the fraternities per girl housed in their chapter houses. Because the investment of the fraternities was desired, not the present valuation of property owned, the figures used are . . . valuation figures at time of purchase of land and house (with costs for extensive remodeling or rebuilding added) and the insurance valuation of furnishings. While the insurance valuation of furnishings would be somewhat lower than the actual investment, it was felt they would be more reliable figures than could be secured," if estimates were made by present members as to cost of furnishings long in the house.

The 297 houses included in this section are situated in all parts of the country, and some of them on practically every campus where chapter houses are maintained. (Failure to include every house on every campus is due to non-appearance of requested data.) All possible information was used and seemingly unresolvable discrepancies on one campus were adjusted through a second call for data.

The date when property acquired affects figures because of fluctuating building and real estate costs.

A rough average of purchase years is included as indicative of the time of greatest activity in chapter house building.

The figures on fireproof construction are only generally true, for a stucco house may be fireproof, and a brick or stone one not really fireproof.

Geographical grouping is used because climatic conditions materially affect building costs, as do location in city or village affect real estate costs.

The table of geographical groupings includes all colleges with chapters of National Panhellenic fraternities, though some of them do not have any chapter houses. A check of this list with the tables following will show where fraternity houses are not, and also where there are fraternity houses, but none owned by fraternities. Both of these college groups will decrease, as chapters build or buy, and as campus after campus is opened to chapter houses as an aid in solving the ever growing problem of student housing.

Kappa Alpha Theta is third in number of houses owned; has less invested in land than the average. The average cost of Theta houses is $3,950 more than the general cost average; Theta furnishings are also slightly above the average valuation; Theta's greatest building year was among the earliest; while Theta houses average one less girl housed than the general average.

Totals	297	$9,501,540	6985	$1,360(aver.)

Pi Beta Phi has the largest investment, divided among 33 houses: Theta's investment is next largest. Alpha Chi Omega, Delta Delta Delta, Kappa Kappa Gamma, and Pi Beta Phi houses care for more girls than do Theta houses. Theta Upsilon and Beta Phi Alpha houses have more invested per girl housed than has Theta, whose average is $110 above the general average—and yet a number of Theta chapters are inadequately housed even yet.

The starred colleges in Table 4 are where Kappa Alpha Theta owns houses. Theta chapters at Drake, Florida State, Michigan State, and Nevada also live in chapter houses, though rented ones. Colleges not included in the table where Theta lives in chapter houses are—South Dakota, Pittsburgh, California, S.B. and William and Mary, where as yet no fraternity owns a house; and Northwestern and Arizona where owned property secured since survey made.

To bring the figures for Kappa Alpha Theta up-to-date the following additional information is offered.

Theta now owns 34 chapter houses—the six built since the survey are in the following table.

College	Total investment	Number girls housed	Investment per girl housed
Arizona	$40,000	32	$1,250
Colorado	45,000	32	1,406
Iowa	45,000	30	1,500
Northwestern	110,000	29	3,793
Oregon State	50,000	26	1,923
Texas	41,000	25	1,640
Totals	$331,000	174
Averages	55,166	29	$1,918

In addition: Gamma is ready to build a new house because the old house is inadequate and Butler college is moving to the other side of Indianapolis, and Chi is building a new house as its house was destroyed by fire last March.

The new Butler house will represent a total investment of $63,600 and will accommodate 26 girls; the old house cost $10,000 and housed 12 girls.

The house building at Syracuse will represent an investment of $73,500 and house 26 girls. The old house cost $25,000 and accommodated 25 girls.

The additional investment in these two houses is $102,100, which makes a total investment in Kappa Alpha Theta houses of $1,095,600.

Two Theta chapter houses, at Stanford and Vermont, are clear of all debt—the first having paid for itself through rent, the second having been cleared of the last $5,000 mortgage through the generosity of an alumna who burnt the mortgage at the 1928 Commencement reunion in appreciation of the high scholarship and general fine spirit of the present college chapter. (Three other chapters, Delta, Psi, Omega, have had homes free of debt, which were used as base for financing present fine homes.)

Not included in the survey are the four lodges, or club houses owned by Theta chapters in colleges where real chapter houses are either prohibited or impracticable. These serve as social centers, though no one lives in them. They are Beta Beta's lodge at Randolph-Macon, investment $1,700; Alpha Eta's lodge at Vanderbilt, investment $4,500; Alpha Beta's lodge at Swarthmore, investment $10,000; and Beta Eta's house at Pennsylvania, investment $10,000. Investment in four lodges $25,700, an average of $6,425.

Total Kappa Alpha Theta investment $1,121,300.

LIVING EXPENSES

This section "was designed to show the additional expenses incurred if a girl joined a fraternity. While it is doubtful if these figures are entirely accurate, it is believed they are not far from the facts and that the claim these averages set up—that it costs only about $9 a month, everything included, to be a fraternity woman—is probably true. The additional cost of living in a chapter house instead of a dormitory appears to be $4 per month, with an average $5 per month additional expenses to cover extras involved in fraternity life. The interesting fact that the increase in expense is so uniform in the several geographical districts tends to verify the figures."

There was frequently great variance in the information furnished as to dormitory charges on the same campus, which seems to indicate such information was more difficult to obtain than had been anticipated.

In the questionnaire "extras" was defined to—"include laundry, assessments for social purposes, student organization dues, but not tuition, laboratory fees, costs of books, or personal expenses such as clothes, theaters, etc." For fraternity girls the year's estimate was to "include one-fourth initiation and pledge fees, one-fourth cost of plain badge, chapter and pledge dues, together with obligatory national dues or subscriptions, and payments on house notes."

Miss Gachet says of the figures for "extras" in the tables: "these should not be considered as reliably accurate, for the data varied so widely that it is felt certain that in many cases what was called for was not understood. When monthly extras were given in such obviously incorrect figures as $40, or fifty cents, the data was discarded." Because of the large number of replies it is probably true though that the final averages come near the facts.

Miss Gachet's figures for the different sections of the country are most interesting as confirming the general impression as to where college is most expensive. Incidentally, it is interesting to note that high tuition fees prevail where living expenses are high too.

AVERAGE CAMPUS LIVING EXPENSES—GEOGRAPHICAL GROUPS
(From Miss Gachet's more detailed table)

District	Number of colleges	Dormitories		Chapter Houses
		Room and board	Extras	Room and board	Extras
Northeastern	10	$50.99	$5.90	$51.90	$11.07
Northeast Central	12	36.86	4.58	40.04	9.18
Northwest Central	17	38.50	6.16	42.50	12.04
Southern	10	32.75	8.09	37.90	12.35
Western	16	36.05	4.34	40.75	8.96
Total and Average	65	$37.95	$5.60	$41.80	$10.50

Miss Gachet's survey also has tables showing the average expenses in the chapter houses of each fraternity; and tables by districts for expenses at each college. For the purposes of this story it seems sufficient to give the average expenses in Thetas own houses, and to combine the colleges in one table, alphabetically arranged. If any one is deeply interested in a geographic comparison for such details, they can make their own tables from this general one.

The average cost of board and room in 41 Kappa Alpha Theta chapter houses was, in 1926-27, $42.00 a month, divided thus—room rent, $13.57; board, $28.43. The average "extras" reported as spent by Thetas was $8.36.

This next table's figures are of interest in comparison with the costs of a college education, as presented at Theta's 1928 convention by the then Scholarship fund committee, now known by the more accurate, if formal, title of "Kappa Alpha Theta's loan and fellowship fund committee."

OPERATING EXPENSES

This section was "planned with the idea of setting up general averages . . . as a sort of yardstick in judging," the efficiency of chapter house management; and as a help to new chapter house experimenters. "It was also planned to establish some facts as to the so-called extravagance in rushing. . . . The general average for rushing is $195, and for other social expenses, $355 per year. With an average of 24 girls in a chapter house this represents an expenditure per girl of $23 for the year, or $2.50 per month. As every chapter has girls living outside the chapter house, who share in all social expenses, the average per girl is probably less than this. Even these figures hardly seem to justify the term extravagant."

Data for this section was received concerning 432 chapter houses, but because of different systems of bookkeeping—and some practices that hardly deserve the name "system"—the returns were difficult to correlate and many of the figures of doubtful accuracy.

In 70 houses no chaperon salary was reported, and in a good many other instances it was indicated that "room and board" were the only salary. The average chaperon salary for 84 per cent of the houses was $340 per year, or $37.50 per month, on a nine month's college year basis. In 37 per cent of the houses, the chaperon also acted as manager; while in 55 per cent of the houses, one of the members was the manager, usually receiving at least her board for such service; 6 per cent of the houses were managed by special housekeepers, each of whom had charge of several houses on one campus.

The survey showed that Panhellenic governed rushing expenses on fewer campuses than was anticipated. There was a surprising variance, sometimes of several hundred dollars, in the rushing expenses of different fraternities on the same campus. As before noted the rushing expense average for 432 chapters was $195; the largest average was in the Western district, $225; and the lowest in the Southern, $145.

Food costs necessarily vary in different sections, though the variation is not as large as expected: the largest outlay, in the Northwest Central district, averaged $3,180; the smallest, in the Southern district, averaged $2,460; the average for all 432 houses was $2,815 for the year. To experienced housekeepers these figures seem too small to be accurate.

Wages for service averaged $995 a year: the smallest figure coming from the Southern district, $570; and the largest, from the Northwest Central district, $1,060. It is strongly suspected that most of the replies did not include the cost of board, often given as wages to waiters, etc.

Items for heat, light, and general house expenses were reported in such varied forms as to have little general significance.

Rent on owned property represented the payment to the corporation holding title to the chapter house, so provided upkeep, interest, repairs, and payments on mortgage, or retirement of bonds or stock. For houses rented from individuals, the outlay was rent pure and simple, with no future gain for the chapter. The general average of rent was $1,990 per year. In some of the larger universities, where are the newest houses, housing the most girls, rents averaged over $3,500 per year. The lowest recorded rent was $550 per year. Of course, the larger rents include the larger payments on property too, and because those houses hold more girls, do not make a larger rent item per member. The average rent per girl, the country over, is approximately, $14.00 a month.

On the whole a most interesting and helpful study is Miss Gachet's. Now for a survey that will reveal the multiplicity of plans whereby the building, or buying, of chapter houses is financed, and show fraternity alumnae which are the best plans for their "unusual" conditions.

THETAGRAMS

WEDDINGS

"What's the matter with this picture?" has been a familiar phrase to magazine readers in the past year. What's the matter with the news in this section? This is not a facetious question, for the "matter" is a serious problem for the editorial office. The news here has added 95 Thetas to the list of lost members—because the reporters were in such a hurry they could not add the addresses of the new homes, or else were so sure the new husbands of their friends were so famous that "Washington, D.C." "St. Louis, Mo." and similar addresses were sufficiently complete for the postoffice authorities.

Any cooperation in actually locating these happy Thetas, will be appreciated by the harassed office staff.

IN CHICAGO

Kappa Alpha Theta alumnae in Chicago have just made arrangements to have a complete information service available through Allerton House, 701 North Michigan avenue, for all traveling members. This service will include the names, addresses, and telephone numbers of all Thetas residing in Chicago or suburbs. Also the names of the Chicago alumnae officers and information in regard to all luncheons, dinners and parties.

The Allerton is the Official Intercollegiate alumni hotel in Chicago and through this appointment the names and addresses of alumni from the ninety-eight colleges and universities included in the Intercollegiate alumni extension service, are on file.

Seven separate floors of the Allerton have been reserved for women guests, of whom 75 per cent are college women and every national fraternity is represented. Chicago alumnae groups from the majority of national fraternities are cooperating with this plan which will provide a fraternity information bureau for Chicago, as well as offer transient or permanent living quarters for college women in a college atmosphere at a very reasonable rate. The Allerton is located within a fifteen minute walk to the business and theatrical section of the city. Here also you will find a circulating library, 18-hole indoor golf course, 8 tennis courts.

When you are in Chicago we are expecting you to attend our meetings and if you want to find any of your old college friends, call at The Allerton.

MARY M. GLESSNER, Chicago Alumnae

RECOMMENDED HOTELS

IN MAY, 1928, a committee of alumnae chapters was formed to determine what alumnae chapters and clubs would think of a plan for recommending hotels or clubs in certain cities throughout the United States for the use of traveling Thetas, and of maintaining in these hotels a register or index of the Thetas resident in those cities, such registers to be available for reference to fraternity guests. This committee met at convention to discuss details and the plan is now well under way. The list of hotels which were decided upon during the summer is printed in this issue; subsequent changes and additions will be reported in future issues. We trust that our members will avail themselves of the plan, will find the recommended hotels satisfactory, and that the plan will bring Thetas together to their mutual satisfaction and enjoyment.

Eleventh (1927) Edition

BAIRD'S MANUAL of American College Fraternities

Edited by FRANCIS W. SHEPARDSON

FIRST published in 1879 by William Raimond Baird, the eleventh edition is revised and enlarged so that it is complete and up-to-date.

The page size is larger and the book is in better proportion than previous editions. It contains histories of all of the fraternities, a general story of the Greek letter movement, constitutions of the various interfraternity organizations and many statistics and features of great interest.

Price $4.00 per copy, postage prepaid.

Mrs. Y. B. Huffman, Broken Bow, Nebraska, has in her possession two bound volumes of the Kappa Alpha Theta, volumes 24 and 25, 1909-10, 1910-11, which she will be glad to give to any chapter which needs them to complete its files. Any one interested, please write direct to Mrs. Huffman.

FOUND—At Breezy Point Inn, after convention, a Mortar Board badge, engraved with the name "Ernestine Grigsby." There was no Ernestine Grigsby registered there, nor is there any one of that name on Kappa Alpha Theta's roll. But, who ever was wearing the badge may reclaim it by writing to Mrs. Y. B. Huffman, Convention manager, Broken Bow, Nebraska, as the hotel sent it to Mrs. Huffman.
